

CASH LIFETIME ISA CONVEYANCER DECLARATION

When you receive a declaration from a Lifetime ISA investor who appoints you to purchase their first residential property you must declare all the following information to us.

If your client's house purchase does not proceed within 90 days of you receiving the Lifetime ISA funds and you have not received an extension of time, you must repay all of the funds to your client's Lifetime ISA. Any funds not repaid into your client's Lifetime ISA will incur a government withdrawal charge that your client will be required to pay to HM Revenue and Customs.

Please give us 30 days' notice prior to completion to ensure your funds will be released in time for your requested completion date. Once completion has taken place we require confirmation of the completion in writing as soon as possible.

I declare that:

- I have received the information on this declaration from my client who has declared it to be true and complete to the best of their knowledge
- I will only use the Cash Lifetime ISA funds released towards the purchase price of my client's first residential property, or my client's first share in a residential property
- If the purchase does not proceed within 90 days of the date of receipt of my client's Cash Lifetime ISA funds and I have not received an extension of time, I will return the funds in full.
- On completion the property will be used by my client as their only or main residence
- The property will be purchased with a loan taken as a charge over the property excluding a 'Buy to Let Mortgage' (other than where your client is a UK Crown employee serving overseas, or their spouse or civil partner, and cannot undertake immediate occupation on completion)
- The information provided by me is true and complete to the best of my knowledge
- The conditions are met for a charge-free withdrawal
- The Lifetime ISA(s) from which I am withdrawing funds will have been open with funds credited for at least 12 months when the withdrawal is made.

Note to Conveyancer

Your clients can use funds in their Lifetime ISA to buy their first residential property:

- with other purchasers who may or may not be first time purchasers, there is no limit on the number of individuals who can buy a single residential property
- as joint owner with another person who may already own the property
- as joint owner with one or more individuals who will use funds held in their own Lifetime ISA

Your client must:

- purchase a legal interest in land with a loan taken as a charge over the property i.e. a mortgage but not a buy to let mortgage. A 'buy to let mortgage is only permissible where your client is a UK crown employee serving overseas, or their spouse or civil partner, and cannot occupy the property on completion
- on completion of the purchase occupy the land as their only or main residence
- on completion of a partially completed dwelling occupy it as their only or main residence
- the maximum purchase price of £450,000 applies irrespective of whether it is a sole or joint purchase
- The amount withdrawn from your client's Lifetime ISA must be no more than the purchase price of the first residential property

Time limits

- If your client's purchase is continuing but is not expected to complete within
- 90 days of receiving funds from your client's Lifetime ISA you must ask your client's Lifetime ISA Manager for a 60 day extension
- If, having received an authorised extension of 60 days, your client's purchase is continuing but is not expected to complete within the timescales of the extension you must ask your client's Lifetime ISA manager for a final 30 day extension
- If, having received the final extension of 30 days, the purchase is not expected to complete within the timescales of that final extension (i.e. the purchase has been continuing for 180 days) you must return the withdrawn funds in full to your client's Lifetime ISA manager. Where required, the house purchase withdrawal process may be repeated to release the funds without penalty to complete the purchase
- In the absence of a request for an extension, the withdrawal may be liable to a withdrawal charge
